Earth Day is just around the corner, come learn about plant ecosystems at the Library by building your own terrarium.

- For ages 12 & up
- Please pre-register

Transitioning to College

Tips and Tools for a Great Experience

TUE, April 21 ■ 6:30-8

40% of undergraduate college students don't earn their degree. Learn how to make sure your child isn't one of them.

Presented by Boulder Psychological Services. Facilitators: Dan Fox, LPC; Dr. Sunda Friedman TeBockhorst, LPC; Corissa Gold, LPC.

Creating Paper Flowers

SAT, April 25 ■ 1:30-3

Join us to make a selection of paper flowers. Materials will be provided free of charge.

Please pre-register at the Adult Services desk or call 303-335-4821.

Finding the WHY in Your Business

WED, April 29 ■ 6-8PM

How do you stay on track? How do you create 'Win:Win' scenarios and fully engage your employees and customers? Focus on the WHY. What is the core purpose of your business? And how do you communicate that with the community?

Spy School

FRI, April 3, 10, 17, 24

4-5PM ■ ages 8-10 ■ pre-register

Have you ever thought about being a spy? Spies use science every day when they crack codes, write in invisible ink, send messages to each other, and more.

Join CU Science Discovery teachers and learn about the science that spies use every day.

This class is funded by a grant from the Women's Foundation, which supports girls in STEM. The grant stipulates that half of the spots in each class are reserved for girls.

Toddler Art

MON, April 13 ■ 1-2PM
(18mos–3yrs; pre-register)

Creating art is not only fun, it builds shape and color recognition, and it is one of the ways young children build the fine motor skills necessary to learn to write. During this program, we'll read a story and then work on fun art projects! The use of paint is likely, so come dressed to get a little messy.

Writing Club

THUR, April 16 ■ 4-5PM
(grades 3-5; pre-register)

Do you love to write? Come to the new Louisville Library Writing Club, where we will work on our writing skills together! We will work on writing projects, write from a prompt, and share our work with each other.
