

This document contains eligibility criteria and guidelines related to financial assistance
 Boulder County is helping distribute in the wake of the December 30, 2021 Marshall Fire

Financial Assistance for Families, Individuals, and Businesses Impacted by the Marshall Fire Apply at www.boco.org/MarshallFireAssistance
Who Qualifies?	How Much?	How is Eligibility Verified?	What's Not Included?	Additional Details
Households that were evacuated due to the Marshall Fire	$125 per household	Proof of name and address within evacuation zone map
People with damaged or destroyed homes	$2,500 for households with one to two people or $5,000 for households with three or more people	Must be verified from the Marshall Fire Damage Assessment Map and must show proof of address and name	Does not include properties not listed as damaged or destroyed on the Marshall Fire Damage Assessment Map	Owner-occupied homes with rental units are treated as two households (owners and renters may both qualify for funds) Owners of rental properties can receive $2,500 Tenants in a rental property can receive $2,500 for one to two tenants or $5,000 for three or more tenants; The tenants must divide the funds evenly and each tenant applying for the funds must sign an affidavit stating that they agree to divide the funds evenly Households that received $125 for evacuation and are now eligible for either $2,500 or $5,000 because their home is now on the Marshall Fire Damage Assessment Map do not need to return the $125
Livelihood disruption: individuals who were out of work as a result of the Marshall Fire	$1,200 for individuals	Recent pay stub and/or letter from business owner and/or unemployment application	Does not include businesses for which employees were relocated	Does include impacted home businesses; must be directly tied to a business within the Marshall Fire Damage Assessment Map damage zone
Loss of tools of the trade: individuals who lost tools or items needed to complete their work	$500 for individuals	Receipts or purchase records if available	Does not include computers or computer equipment	Loss of tools of the trade must have occurred within the Marshall Fire Damage Assessment Map damage zone

Uninhabitable homes due to smoke, ash, other hazardous conditions	$2,500 for households with one to two people or $5,000 for households with three or more people	Letter from insurance company; note from a doctor about a medical condition; hotel receipts; letter from landlord or host that recipient has been out of their home due to the fire	Does not include homes listed as damaged or destroyed on the Marshall Fire Damage Assessment Map or wind damaged homes	Recipient must have not been able to live in the home due to smoke/ash contamination or hazardous conditions
Small local businesses that were damaged or destroyed	$2,500 per business impacted	Business must be within Marshall Fire Damage Assessment Map damage zone; business address and/or registration records, tax returns	Does not include larger corporations or businesses that relocated employees	Does include impacted home businesses