MONSTER MASH

Saturday, October 26, 5-8 p.m.

Superior Community Center

Witcha up to this Halloween? We'll give you pumpkin to do!

Hosted in partnership with the Superior Youth Leadership Council (SYLC), this spooktacular event is oozing with fun for everyone: live DJ playing monster jams, trunk-or-treating, costume contests (ages 10 and under), photo booth, beverage service for the adults, food and treats for all, and more!

WINTER FESTIVAL

Saturday, December 14, 1-6 p.m.

Downtown Superior Civic Space, 2250 Main Street

Mark your calendars for this winter wonderland of fun: skate with Santa, cozy up on a carriage ride, shop the crafters market, take pictures with Santa and the Grinch, visit with live reindeer, create your own art and crafts, indulge in delicious food, drinks and treats, and enjoy live music, dance and musical performances, followed by a lighting ceremony.

PLAZA PALOOZA

We have some fun plans in the works for the Plaza in Downtown Superior. Visit the Town's Event website for an up-to-date list of activities and events: SuperiorColorado.gov/Events

HISTORIC COMMISSION'S ANNUAL FALL PROGRAM

Superior's Geology

Thursday, October 3, 7 p.m.

Town Hall, 124 E. Coal Creek Drive

When founded in 1896, Superior took its name from the quality of the coal it mined. What made that coal "superior" to the other ores mined in Colorado's Northern Field? Learn how Superior's geology shaped our history at the Historic Commission's Annual Fall Program. Jeff Graves, Director of Inactive Mine Reclamation Program, Division of Reclamation, Mining and Safety, Colorado Department of Natural Resources, will present an overview of local geology, how it influenced the mining industry, and how inactive mines still play a role in the environment today. This event is FREE and open to the public.

Disaster Preparedness

BOULDER TEEN FIRE GROUP

All Ages | Community Center

Town of Superior and Jewish Family Services Boulder are partnering to offer a six-week support group for teens, 14-17 years old, focused on finding connection after the Marshall Fire. This will be a nature-based group that meets weekly from 5-6:30 p.m. on August 5, 12, 19, 26 and September 9 and 16 at the Superior Community Center, 1500 Coalton Road Superior, CO 80027.

Goals of the group:

- Supporting teens through the aftermath of the fire when the fire isn't being talked about in such detail as it once was.
- Supporting teens around other challenges that arise after a natural disaster.
- For teens to create healthy connection with each other over a shared experience.
- For teens to learn concrete skills and psychoeducation around (subject to change): Coping/managing stress, grief and loss, living through a natural disaster, how to manage or work through trauma activation.

Visit: jewishfamilyservice.org/teen-group-boulder for registration details.

BEE TALK WITH THE BEES WAGGLE

All Ages | Community Center

Honey bees make the headlines, but did you know there are 20,000 species of bees buzzing on our planet? Honey bees are not native to North America, but there are 4,000 species that are, and Colorado is home to 1,006 species. Native bees may not make honey, but they are master pollinators that uphold our native ecosystems through their pollen transporting services.

Come learn with Jessica Goldstrohm, owner and head educator of The Bees Waggle (beeswaggle.com), about the amazing characteristics and skills of bees, who some of our Colorado bees are and how to support them through gardening.
